IN MEMORIAM
MALCOLM GLAZER
1928 - 2014

MALCOLM GLAZER

OWNER/PRESIDENT (1995-2014)

When Malcolm Glazer triumphantly hoisted the Lombardi Trophy on January 26, 2003, after his Tampa Bay Buccaneers emphatically defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 in Super Bowl XXXVII, his celebratory smile signified to a worldwide audience that the Buccaneers had indeed arrived.

That world championship – the franchise's first in its then 27-year history – marked the fulfillment of a vow by Glazer and his family to not only restore the long-lost success of Tampa's much-beloved franchise, but to surpass all previous standards by capturing the team's first Super Bowl Championship.

From first purchasing the team on January 16, 1995, to the time of his passing on May 28, 2014, Glazer, through his dedication and diligence, helped mold the Buccaneers into a model franchise, one respected league-wide and one other sports franchises endeavor to emulate.

Under the Glazer family's watchful eyes, the Buccaneers franchise experienced a dramatic upswing in its fortunes, earning seven playoff berths, five playoff wins, and capturing its first Super Bowl championship. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to the family's purchase of the club.

In one of the family's first personnel moves as franchise owners, Tony Dungy was selected as head coach to help bring new vitality to the organization. The Glazer family gave Dungy his first head coaching opportunity, and, in return, Dungy helped turn the struggling Buccaneers into contenders, and is credited, along with then-defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin, with the development of the famous Tampa 2 defensive scheme.

Glazer orchestrated a bold trade with the Oakland Raiders for the Buccaneers' next head coach, Jon Gruden, who joined the team on February 18, 2002. The daring move paid dividends, as Gruden led Tampa Bay to its first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII – then the youngest head coach in league history to win a Super Bowl and the first veteran head coach ever to lead his team to a world championship in his first season with a new team. In his tenure, Gruden also helped bring a total of three division championships (2002, 2005, 2007) to Tampa Bay.

Malcolm Glazer was the guiding force behind the building of a Super Bowl-champion organization. His dedication to the community was evident in all he did, including his leadership in bringing Super Bowls to Tampa Bay. Malcolm's commitment to the Bucs, the NFL and the people of the Tampa Bay region are the hallmarks of his legacy.”

- NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell

Along with bringing innovation to the sidelines, Glazer helped transform the Buccaneers with their first major logo and uniform change in franchise history, introducing the red and pewter color scheme and skull and crossed swords on a red battle flag logo in 1997. After decades of losing in the original “Creamsicle” uniforms prior to the Glazer family's purchase of the team, the new look drew rave reviews. The team enhanced the designs in 2014, updating with a sleeker, more menacing skull and bolder colors.

Known among his league peers for years as a pioneering thinker, Glazer infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization provided the foundation for continued success on and off the field.

Glazer successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan that provided stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives, and a solid business partnership within Bay Area communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's Raymond James Stadium. The home of the Buccaneers offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike, and stands as part of Glazer's legacy.

Glazer was also dedicated to the community, and pushed to expand the club's community relations department. His mandate to enhance the team's visibility in the community was reflected through increased appearances by Buccaneers players, coaches, cheerleaders and front office officials.

The Glazer Family Foundation was launched in 1999, which was established to help identify and create programs that support positive social and economic development in the area. The Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions over the years.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities also included The Glazer Children's Museum which now stands in downtown Tampa a result of a $5 million donation by the Glazer family. Additionally, Glazer committed $2 million dollars to The Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur sports activities.

“ I have so many good memories of Mr. Glazer as the owner of the only team I played for, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. I am so proud to say he is the only owner I played for and he set the stage for our turnaround by hiring Tony Dungy. He also had the tough mindset to bring in Jon Gruden, even though it cost a lot. Let's not forget he fought to have two Super Bowls here.”

- Hall of Fame Linebacker Derrick Brooks

Glazer was highly regarded throughout the league, serving as a member of the NFL's Finance Committee for years and playing a major role in bids that brought the Super Bowl to Tampa. In 2005, he purchased Manchester United, the world's most popular and valuable sports team. The club captured five Premier League titles (2007-09, 2011 and 2013) under Glazer's ownership, as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Born in Rochester, New York as one of seven children, Glazer took over the family watch-parts business at age 15 following the death of his father. A successful entrepreneur, Glazer first expanded the company, and then continued his foray into the professional world, investing in other businesses. Glazer owned, had owned or had been a substantial shareholder of a diverse portfolio of international holdings and public companies, including: First Allied, Zapata Corporation, Houlihan's Restaurant Chain, Harley Davidson, Formica, Tonka, Specialty Equipment and Omega Protein.

A long-time resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Glazer leaves behind his wife, Linda, six children and 14 grandchildren.

OWNERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

BRYAN GLAZER

CO-CHAIRMAN

Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 20th year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer, who oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club, has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League and has become a leader in the Bay Area, recognized for his tremendous community work.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have posted 146 regular season wins and five playoff wins with seven playoff appearances. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family, which included advancement to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

In 2014, the franchise welcomed its 10th head coach, as the Glazer family selected Lovie Smith to lead the team. It was a homecoming for Smith, whose first NFL coaching position was tutoring linebackers as a member of Tony Dungy's Tampa Bay staff from 1996-2000, and the choice was roundly lauded in NFL circles. Smith brings stability and a wealth of experience to the Buccaneers, taking the reins following nine years (2004-12) as head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI, as well as being named AP and PFW/PFWA Coach of the Year in 2005. Securing Smith for the Buccaneers highlighted the Glazer family's enduring commitment to bringing excellence to the Bay Area.

Glazer's dedication to the Bay Area is also highlighted in the club's effort constructing Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001 and played host to Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay Area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. Glazer is committed to continuing to bring future Super Bowls to the area.

Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors during the construction of Raymond James Stadium to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers have notched an impressive 72-54 record in the regular season.

Glazer also worked diligently on the construction of One Buccaneer Place, the team's training facility and business operations center. The 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters, located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium, is one of the finest in the National Football League. The signature feature of the facility is its breathtaking entrance, which includes the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall. The facility opened to rave reviews in August of 2006.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' sponsors with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

The Buccaneers' new logo, color scheme and uniforms, which debuted in March 2014, were also a result of the Glazer family's forward thinking. Glazer, along with his brothers and designers and graphic artists from Nike and NFL Properties, spent over two years crafting the enhancements. The updated logo – which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design – honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. Along with hand-painted shading and chrome facemasks on the helmet, the new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts. The team's colors were also energized with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring "Bay Orange" as a primary trim and accent color.

In addition to his business achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly related to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including, but not limited to, the team's first Super Bowl championship.

A native of Rochester, New York, the 48-year-old Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes regular community and charitable appearances on behalf of the Glazer Family Foundation, which was honored as Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Tampa Bay Sports Commission Sneaker Soiree in 2011. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a children's museum in downtown Tampa, which opened on September 25, 2010 and is named the Glazer Children's Museum. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors of the Glazer Children's Museum, Glazer is also on the Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House. In the spring of 2011, he served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball charity event.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title, during the family's ownership.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989.

JOEL GLAZER CO-CHAIRMAN

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's business acumen. These attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 20th season with the Buccaneers, Co-Chairman Joel Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

The family's leadership and dedication to the team is evidenced by the Buccaneers' seven playoff berths and first-ever Super Bowl Championship – all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Co-Chairman, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a contender, but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed their first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005 and 2007.

In 2014, the franchise welcomed its 10th head coach, as the Glazer family selected Lovie Smith to lead the team. It was a homecoming for Smith, whose first NFL coaching position was tutoring linebackers as a member of Tony Dungy's Tampa Bay staff from 1996-2000, and the choice was roundly lauded in NFL circles. Smith brings stability and a wealth of experience to the Buccaneers, taking the reins following nine years (2004-12) as head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI, as well as being named AP and PFW/PFWA Coach of the Year in 2005. Securing Smith for the Buccaneers highlighted the Glazer family's enduring commitment to bringing excellence to the Bay Area.

Glazer, promising a world-class facility, led the design development for the club's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art team headquarters which opened to rave reviews in August 2006. Located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium, One Buccaneer Place is one of the finest training facilities in the National Football League. The signature of the site is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have recorded 146 regular-season wins and five playoff wins. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers' have seen seven playoff appearances since 1997. Prior to the Glazers' arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-94.

Following the purchase of the team in 1995, Glazer directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office and recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Joel worked tirelessly alongside Bryan to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drew from their experiences as fans, and ultimately shaped every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget, earning nods as the “Crown Jewel of the NFL.” The signature element – Buccaneer Cove – features a 103-foot replica pirate ship that fires cannons to celebrate Buccaneers touchdowns. Upon its opening, Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums, and it continues to provide an exciting, innovative gameday experience to this day. In 2014, the stadium concourses received a $7 million comprehensive overhaul, featuring 14 all-new concession locations and four additional beverage stands to provide fans with fresh, new food offerings, designed to tie into the team's Tampa-area roots.

Throughout the construction of Raymond James Stadium, Glazer created the sales and marketing efforts that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate Pewter Partners sponsorship program, Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

In March of 2014, the Glazers unveiled exciting changes to the franchise, introducing an updated logo, color scheme and uniform design, which were the result of several years of development and collaboration with Nike and NFL Properties. The enhanced logo – which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design – honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. Along with hand-painted shading and chrome facemasks on the helmet, the new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts. The team's colors were also energized with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring “Bay Orange” as a primary trim and accent color.

Glazer represents the team at all NFL Owners Meetings, addressing the media with a “state of the franchise” address. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay Area won the bid for Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to helping children in the Bay Area through charity initiatives. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum, the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened in 2010 and was recently named one of the Top Ten Family Museums in the country by Women's Day Magazine. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in 2011. In addition to his community efforts, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International, NFL Finance and NFL Stadium committees.

In 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay Area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013) as well as the 2008 Champions League title. He was recently named as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by the Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native is married to Angela, and has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER CO-CHAIRMAN

Entering his 20th season with Tampa Bay in 2014, Co-Chairman Edward Glazer oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Recognizing that the fans are of the utmost importance to the team's success, Glazer sets the tone for Tampa Bay's commitment to its fan base. In 2012, Glazer oversaw a complete overhaul of the team's marketing and sales departments, including the launch of a new Member Relations Department created exclusively for Buccaneers Season Pass Members. The new department, which offers an array of off-the-field benefits and unparalleled customer service, has been a huge success as JD Powers ranked the Buccaneers No. 1 in customer satisfaction among all NFL teams for the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

Glazer scrutinizes every detail of the business operations at One Buccaneer Place to ensure that fans are getting the best possible Buccaneers experience and value. In an effort to make season pass membership even more accessible to fans, Glazer introduced the league's first 12-month interest-free payment plan as well as a reduced price $15 youth ticket.

Glazer ensures the team is always focused on forward-thinking initiatives aimed at improving the game day experience, such as his successful efforts in making Raymond James Stadium one of the first NFL Stadiums to offer Wi-Fi and bolstering the team's website and social media capabilities. In 2014, the team released its newest app for all cell phones and one for the iPad. The Buccaneers have also built a strong social media presence to connect with fans, utilizing Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and a special fan-driven site - ItsABucsLife.com. Glazer is focused on enhancing the experience of being a Tampa Bay fan, down to the most critical details.

Understanding that game day is the biggest day for all Buccaneer fans, Glazer has overseen a $7 million renovation of the Raymond James Stadium general concourse concession stands for the 2014 season that will ensure that Buccaneers fans will enjoy the highest quality and freshest foods available at any NFL Stadium.

Glazer unveiled more exciting changes for the franchise in 2014 by introducing the first revision to the Buccaneers uniforms in 17 years. The all-new uniform and helmet were unveiled in the spring. Glazer worked closely with Nike and NFL Properties to create this bold all-new look. The enhanced logo – which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design – honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. Along with hand-painted shading and NFL-first chrome facemasks on the helmet, the new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts. The team's colors were also energized with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring "Bay Orange" as a primary trim and accent color.

In addition to his passion for innovation, Glazer also treasures the Buccaneers' past. He spearheaded a massive project to digitally archive the entire photographic history of the franchise, which included the organization, captioning, rating and uploading of more than 100,000 images-- ensuring that the team's first 35 years of history dating back to its inaugural 1976 season were preserved.

The Glazer family has been devoted to building a winning team from their earliest days as owners. Under the Glazers, Tampa Bay has enjoyed its most successful stretch as a franchise, posting seven playoff appearances with four division championships in addition to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII, a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in San Diego on January 26, 2003.

With another Super Bowl victory as the ultimate goal, the Glazers have made bold, educated moves to assemble a winning franchise.

In 2014, Glazer, along with fellow Co-Chairmen Bryan and Joel Glazer, secured Lovie Smith as the Buccaneers' 10th head coach and paired him with Jason Licht as the team's new general manager. It was a homecoming for Smith, whose first NFL coaching position was tutoring linebackers as a member of Tony Dungy's Tampa Bay staff from 1996-2000, and the choice was roundly lauded in NFL circles. Smith brings stability and a wealth of experience to the Buccaneers, taking the reins following nine years (2004-12) as head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI, as well as being named AP and PFW/PFWA Coach of the Year in 2005. Securing Smith for the Buccaneers highlighted the Glazer family's enduring commitment to bringing excellence to the Bay Area.

With steady leadership at the helm, Glazer and his brothers have also been devoted to ensuring the team has the best talent on the field, through both free agent signings such as Josh McCown, Vincent Jackson, Michael Johnson and Alterraun Verner as well as homegrown drafted talent such as Gerald McCoy and Lavonte David, both of whom were named AP All-Pros following the 2013 season.

Away from the football field, Glazer is also heavily involved in charitable endeavors. He is Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation and helps oversee Foundation programs that provide much needed assistance and increased opportunities to Bay Area residents. In its 14 years of existence, the Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions.

In 2010, The Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa. This was made possible with the family's $5 million gift toward the construction of the facility, which opened to rave reviews, earning recognition by Women's Day Magazine as one of the Top 10 family museums in the country. For its wide-reaching efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree in 2011.

In 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay Area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ

CO-PRESIDENT, GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Darcie Glazer Kasewitz, Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation, has worked tirelessly during her family's ownership of the team to ensure that the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' value to the community extends well beyond the playing field. She is a key asset in developing the Foundation's forward-thinking community efforts.

Established in 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes focusing on children and families in the West Central Florida region. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated millions of dollars in support of this cause.

The Glazer Family Foundation's Vision Program was an initiative started in 2006 to provide schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified in school at an early age. To date, the Foundation has donated vision screening equipment to eight counties in West Central Florida. The Vision Mobile, spearheaded by Kasewitz in 2009, provides the final step in vision services to correct these students' inability to see clearly by providing free eye exams and prescription eyeglasses to children at Title One schools. The Vision Mobile visits the schools and since 2009 has provided more than 10,000 eye screenings and more than 5,000 pairs of eye glasses to disadvantaged children.

To start every home Tampa Bay Buccaneers game, Kasewitz meets with children from local community groups on the field prior to kickoff as part of the Foundation's Gameday For Kids program. To date, the Foundation has hosted more than 14,000 youth at Raymond James Stadium who come from organizations throughout the Bay area. Participating kids are rewarded for academic achievement and positive behavior with complimentary game tickets, food vouchers and battle flags.

Through a lead gift, the Glazer Family Foundation is proud to have brought the world-class Glazer Children's Museum to Tampa as part of its ongoing dedication to children and families. The Children's Museum opened on September 25th, 2010. This one-of-a-kind museum instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay, providing 53,000-square feet of space for safe and playful learning.

On the football side, Kasewitz has used her creative expertise to help shape the Buccaneers' world-class facilities. Kasewitz set out to design a football stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. She shaped every detail of the interior of Raymond James Stadium, including the design of the expansive club levels, luxury suites and the Lower Galley restaurant. A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL."

Tampa Bay's training facility, which opened to high praise from across the National Football League in August 2006, is a technological marvel and is still considered among the elite for training facilities in the NFL. Kasewitz oversaw the entire interior design process for the team's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, which houses the day-to-day activities for all of the Buccaneers' football and business operations.

One of the signatures of the training facility is the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Museum, which was designed and produced by Kasewitz. The museum, which is located in the building's reception area, brings the Buccaneers' history to life, including in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise. Featured displays explore the creation of the team's uniform and logo, a description of Buccaneers head coaches since the team's inception in 1976, and the organization's move to Raymond James Stadium and One Buccaneer Place. Additional exhibits explain the history of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders, the establishment of the Glazer Family Foundation, and the continual efforts by Buccaneers players to make an impact in the community. Included are features dedicated to the Buccaneers' Super Bowl victory, including special exhibits showcasing the Lombardi Trophy and Super Bowl ring earned in Super Bowl XXXVII.

The reception area also includes the spectacular Moment of Victory sculpture exhibit, which depicts the moment when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship and commemorates Tampa Bay's victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXVII. Kasewitz not only came up with the concept for the sculptures, but oversaw the design and creation of this one-of-a-kind exhibit.

In the fall of 2013, Kasewitz launched the Buccaneers Academies, a commitment to generations of youth in the Bay Area aimed to inspire, equip, and celebrate students. Serving over 12,000 youth in Hillsborough County, these 21 schools are provided with incentive-based programs and monthly challenges that provide fun, engaging, and motivating opportunities to learn. At the completion of fifth grade, every Buccaneers Academies graduating student receives their very own Ticket to the Future, the commitment from the Buccaneers organization to grant that student a job interview upon their graduation from college. Each Buccaneers Academy also receives a Fitness Zone - a Buccaneers themed covered court to promote active and safe outdoor play.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Glazer Family Foundation, she has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Palm Beach. Kasewitz also serves on the Board of Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured six titles since the Glazer family took over the club: five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kasewitz graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

JASON LIGHT

GENERAL MANAGER

General Manager Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014. Licht (pronounced LIGHT) brings nearly two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with five organizations to the Buccaneers' front office. In 18 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed a 164-124 (.569) record, nine playoff appearances, eight division championships, four conference championships and one Super Bowl title.

Despite only having been with Tampa Bay for a short period of time, Licht has received high marks for his player acquisitions this offseason from multiple media outlets, including CBSSports.com, ESPN, NFL.com, Sports Illustrated and USA Today. The Buccaneers were one of the most active teams in free agency, bringing in T Anthony Collins, C Evan Dietrich-Smith, DE Michael Johnson, QB Josh McCown, DT Clinton McDonald, TE Brandon Myers and CB Alterraun Verner. Licht then presided over the first "all-offense" draft in team history, using all six picks to draft offensive players, including WR Mike Evans, the seventh overall selection.

Licht came to the Buccaneers after two seasons with Arizona, where he was vice president of player personnel before joining Tampa Bay. Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside six head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Pete Carroll, Ken Whisenhunt) and six who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their career (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Dom Capers, Bruce Arians).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

Licht first worked with the Cardinals as a personnel executive in 2008 when Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. He then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the three-time Super Bowl champions, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

LOVIE SMITH HEAD COACH

Named the 10th head coach in franchise history on January 2, 2014, Lovie Smith enters his first season at the helm of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2014.

Smith joins the Buccaneers after having spent nine seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears. During his tenure, Smith led Chicago to an 81-63 (.563) regular season record, while going 3-3 in the postseason. He led the Bears to three division titles, two NFC Championship game appearances and the 2006 NFC title, which propelled Chicago to its first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years. Smith's hiring marks his second stint with Tampa Bay, with his first NFL coaching job coming as a member of former head coach Tony Dungy's staff (1996-2000).

Smith left Chicago ranked third all-time in coaching victories, behind only Hall of Famers George Halas and Mike Ditka.

Under Smith's guidance, the Chicago defense led the NFL in takeaways (310), three-and-out drives forced (485), three-and-out drive percentage (26.4%), third down percentage (34.1%) and red zone scoring efficiency (79.3%). Chicago ranked second in the league in opponent yards per pass attempt (6.52) and red zone takeaways (37), third in opponent passer rating (76.0), fourth in scoring defense (19.2 points per game) and seventh in rushing average (4.0).

The Bears defense was one of the best in the NFL at turning their turnovers into points, returning 34 of their 310 takeaways for touchdowns, including 26 interceptions returned for scores, tied for the most in the NFL during that time.

Chicago's 303 total touchdowns allowed during Smith's tenure were the third-fewest in the NFL. The Bears gave up the fewest points in the NFC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, including leading the league in Smith's second season.

While the team was known for its defensive successes, Chicago also had some of its best offensive performances under Smith. The 2006 Bears scored 427 points, the third-most in franchise history. In 2009, QB Jay Cutler set franchise records for completions and attempts, while recording the second-most passing yards in team history. Cutler became the first quarterback in franchise history to post consecutive 3,000-yard seasons, while also becoming the first Bears QB to have back-to-back seasons with at least 20 touchdown passes. In the same season, RB Matt Forte became just the second player in franchise history (along with Walter Payton) to have 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. Forte became the first player in NFL history with at least 900 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards in each of his first four seasons. In Smith's final season as head coach, the team had a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver for the second time in franchise history – including WR Brandon Marshall's franchise records for receptions (118) and receiving yards (1,508).

Chicago found consistency under the even-keeled hand of Smith's direction, fashioning four double-digit win seasons, five winning seasons and six seasons with a record of .500 or better. The Bears had a regular season home record of 45-27 (.625) from 2004-12 while going 36-36 (.500) on the road during that time. The Bears won five or more games at home seven times in a single year during Smith's tenure. Chicago was 5-3 at home from 2009-12, 6-2 in 2006 and 2008 and 7-1 in the Windy City during 2005. Chicago was 7-1 on the road in 2006, tied with 1985 and 1986 for the team's best single-season road record since the inception of the 16-game schedule. The Bears were 8-16 (.333) on the road in the three years prior to Smith's arrival. By leading Chicago to records of 11-5 in 2005 and 2010 and 13-3 in 2006, Smith guided the Bears to three of their top eight seasons in terms of regular season victories during the era of the 16-game schedule.

Smith returned Chicago to its preferred place as a power in the NFC North, fashioning a divisional record of 32-22 (.593) during his time with the Bears including three division titles (2005, 2006 and 2010). Smith led Chicago to 5-1 intra-divisional records in each of the 2005, 2006 and 2010 campaigns, defeating all three opponents at least once in each of those seasons, a feat last accomplished by the Bears in 1991. Chicago began the 2006 season with three consecutive wins over divisional opponents for the first time in team history. The Bears also won their first 11 games against NFC opponents in 2006 en route to the second-best intra-conference mark in franchise history.

Registering a career-high 13 wins in 2006, Smith led Chicago to home-field advantage in the NFC Playoffs and the team's first NFC Championship since its Super Bowl season of 1985. That gave Chicago 24 regular season wins since 2005, the fourth-highest two-season win total in the 87-season history of the franchise. Smith guided the team to wins in its first seven contests in 2006 to register the fourth-best start to a season in team history while allowing the Bears to join Green Bay and Minnesota as the only teams in NFL history to begin four different seasons with 7-0 records. Chicago's seven consecutive wins to start the season allowed Smith to record the league's third-longest win streak for the second consecutive season. With division titles in 2005 and 2006, Smith joined Ditka as the only coaches in team history to lead the team to consecutive division titles. He was the first coach in team history to lead the Bears to the playoffs in two of his first three seasons.

Smith was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year for 2005 after leading the Bears to a division title in the shortest amount of time in team history, doing so in his second campaign while setting a franchise record for victories by a sophomore head coach with an 11-5 record. Smith - who won with 24.5 of 50 possible votes - was the fourth head coach in team history to win the award after team founder George S. Halas in 1963 and 1965, Mike Ditka in 1985 and 1988 and Dick Jauron in 2001. Just the third coach in team history to lead the organization to the playoffs in his second season, Smith guided the Bears to their first-ever NFC North division title in 2005. En route to the team's division championship that season, the Bears completed their first season sweep of Green Bay since 1991, a feat they repeated in 2007.

Winning just one of their first four games to start the 2005 campaign, Smith rallied the Bears to become just the 20th NFL team to qualify for the postseason after beginning the season 1-3 since the current 12-team playoff system was instituted in 1990. The Bears turned their season around as Smith guided the team to eight consecutive mid-season wins, the third-longest win streak in the NFL in 2005 and the longest by Chicago since the 1985 Super Bowl championship team won 12 straight to begin the season. In guiding the team to the No. 2 seed in the NFC Playoffs, Smith led a worst-to-first revival in the NFC North division as the Bears' six-win improvement from the previous season was tied for the biggest in the NFL in 2005.

The Bears posted a 5-11 record in 2004 during Smith's first season as head coach as he presided over the youngest team in the NFL while battling through a spate of injuries that robbed the team of the services of several of its most productive players.

Smith came to Chicago with the reputation for being proficient at instituting positive change after he engineered a dramatic turnaround as the defensive coordinator of the Rams from 2001 through 2003. Known for his acumen in teaching and motivating young talent, Smith took on the added responsibility of assistant head coach with the Rams prior to the 2003 season. In Smith's first season as an NFL defensive coordinator with St. Louis in 2001, Smith helped the Rams return to the Super Bowl after missing the playoffs the previous season as his defense allowed fewer points and total yards per game than the previous year. Smith coached on playoff teams in four of his last five campaigns as an assistant and has done so in eight of his 17 NFL seasons overall.

From 2001-03, the Rams ranked third in the NFL in takeaways and fumble recoveries, tied for sixth in sacks, and tied for eighth in interceptions. Smith helped steward St. Louis to shutouts in both 2001 and 2003, the first white-washings by the Rams organization since 1994. St. Louis won 33 games during Smith's tenure with the team, the third-most in the NFL during that time behind Green Bay and Philadelphia. He capped his stint in St. Louis by orchestrating a unit that ranked among the league leaders in takeaways, defensive touchdowns, and sacks in 2003. In that year, St. Louis led the NFL with 46 takeaways while tying for fourth with 24 interceptions and leading the NFL with 22 fumble recoveries. That season's takeaway total is tied with the 1999 Eagles and 2011 Pittsburgh Steelers for the third-highest single-season total in the NFL since 1993. St. Louis ranked fourth in the NFL by scoring five defensive touchdowns in 2003 and also posted the fourth-most sacks in the NFL. In 2002, the Rams defense finished tied for fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL in fewest touchdowns allowed while ranking sixth in the NFC and eighth in the NFL in third-down efficiency.

Smith guided St. Louis to a defensive resurgence upon taking over in 2001. Inheriting a defense coming off a season in which it ranked 23rd in the NFL in total defense while allowing over 29 points per game, Smith improved the unit to third in the NFL in total defense while permitting only 17.0 points per game. The St. Louis defense made one-year leaps to third from 13th in the NFL in run defense and 10th from 27th in pass defense while improving to a conference-high 14 wins from 10 in 2000. The Rams scored five defensive touchdowns in 2001 while starting seven new players on defense, including two rookies.

Preceding his success in St. Louis, Smith contributed to the revival of Tampa Bay's defense as the Buccaneers linebacker coach from 1996-2000. Tampa's defense hadn't ranked above 20th in the NFL in the four seasons prior to Smith's arrival under head coach Tony Dungy, but had ranks of 11th in 1996, third in 1997, second in 1998, third in 1999, and ninth in 2000. During the five seasons with Smith on the Bucs staff, the team allowed less than 300 points each year while permitting an average of 16.9 points and 258.8 yards per game.

Smith's tutelage has brought out the best in his players throughout his career. As linebackers coach at Tampa Bay, Smith helped Derrick Brooks develop into a perennial Pro Bowl selection and one of the NFL's all-time greatest linebackers. Brooks made the first Pro Bowl of his team-record 11 career Pro Bowl appearances in his second season – Smith's first season as his position coach. Also in 1996, Smith helped Hardy Nickerson earn his second career Pro Bowl nod. Brooks and Nickerson made a combined eight all-star appearances under Smith.

Overall, Smith has spent 30 years in coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. He began his coaching career at his hometown high school, Big Sandy High School (Texas), in 1980 before moving to Cascia Hall Prep in Tulsa, Okla. the following year. Two years later, Smith made the jump to the college ranks at his alma mater, Tulsa, as linebackers coach, where he stayed through 1986. Smith moved on to coach linebackers at Wisconsin (1987), Arizona State (1988-91), and Kentucky (1992). Smith was the defensive backs coach at Tennessee (1993-94) and Ohio State (1995).

A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Smith led the Big Sandy Wildcats to three consecutive state championships in high school and was all-state three years as an end and linebacker. Smith was a two-time All-America and three-time All-Missouri Conference defensive back at the University of Tulsa.

Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, are the proud parents of three sons: Mikal, married to Kristen; Matthew, married to Kathleen; and Miles.

Lovie is very active in charity work as he and his wife have started the Lovie and MaryAnne Smith Foundation (LAMAS) which helps worthy young people further their education, with the simple motto, "We start it - You finish it."

LESLIE FRAZIER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Leslie Frazier begins his first season as defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2014.

Frazier, entering his 16th season as an NFL coach, comes to the Buccaneers after spending the last three full seasons (2011-13) as the Minnesota Vikings' head coach. In 2012, Frazier set a Vikings record by improving the team's win total by seven victories and earning a Wild Card berth. Frazier originally joined Minnesota in 2007 as defensive coordinator, before adding assistant head coach duties (2008-10) and his eventual promotion to interim head coach for the final six games of the 2010 season. While working as defensive coordinator, Frazier's units finished in the top 10 three times (sixth in 2008 and 2009, eighth in 2010).

During Frazier's seven seasons, the Vikings pass rush flourished, recording the most sacks in the NFL (297) and the second-most forced fumbles (114) during that span. In 2009, the team posted an NFL-best 48 sacks. While in Minnesota, Frazier played a key role in the development of defensive end Jared Allen, who has posted an NFL-leading 85.5 sacks since joining the Vikings in 2008.

The Vikings run defense stacked up as one of the league's best under Frazier, allowing only 94.8 rushing yards per game – the second-lowest total in the NFL during that seven year span – including 2007 (74.1 ypg) and 2008 (76.9 ypg), when it was the No.1 run defense in the league. Frazier also played a role in the development of Pro Bowl and All-Pro defensive tackles Kevin and Pat Williams, both key anchors to Minnesota's stout run defense.

Prior to joining Minnesota, Frazier worked in Indianapolis, as a defensive assistant (2005) and assistant to the head coach/defensive backs coach (2006), helping lead the 2006 Super Bowl Championship team. Under his tutelage, safety Bob Sanders became the first Colts defensive back to earn a Pro Bowl selection since 1971. Frazier helped the Colts defense to an 11th overall ranking in 2005, after having ranked 29th in yards per game in 2004.

Frazier came to Indianapolis from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he served as defensive coordinator from 2003-04. He entered the NFL in 1999 as the Philadelphia Eagles defensive backs coach, a position he held for four seasons. During his time with the Eagles, he helped cornerback Troy Vincent earn four Pro Bowl berths, while safety Brian Dawkins earned three trips. In his final three seasons with the team, Philadelphia advanced to the playoffs each year, including back-to-back NFC Championship Game appearances.

Frazier spent 11 seasons as a collegiate coach before entering the NFL, getting his coaching start as the inaugural head coach at Trinity International University, a position he held from 1988-96. Taking over the new program, he helped lead the team to two Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles. The school later named the football field in his honor. Following his stint as head coach at Trinity, Frazier spent two seasons (1997-98) as the defensive backs coach at the University of Illinois.

All-American defensive back at Alcorn State, Frazier played six seasons for the Chicago Bears (1981-86), including starting on the 1985 Super Bowl championship team and leading the team in interceptions three consecutive seasons (1983-85). He and his wife, Gale, have three children: Kieron, Chantel and Corey.

O'Dea also helped punter Dustin Colquitt tie for the league lead in punts inside the 20-yard line, while allowing the fourth-lowest punt return average in the NFL.

During O'Dea's stints in Chicago, the Bears had one of the top special teams units in the NFL, including the 2007 team that recorded six return touchdowns (four punt, two kick), the most in a single season in NFL history. O'Dea also helped Devin Hester into one of the top return specialists in the NFL, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro berths in 2006-07, when he recorded 12 return touchdowns (seven punt, four kick, one missed field goal), the most ever in consecutive seasons.

In addition to working with Hester, O'Dea has assisted in coaching several other special teams players to Pro Bowls: kick returner Dexter McCluster (Kansas City, 2013); special teamer Corey Graham (Chicago, 2011); kick returner Leon Washington (N.Y. JEFF TEDFORD

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jeff Tedford begins his first season as offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2014.

Tedford joins the Buccaneers after serving as the University of California head coach for 11 seasons (2002-12), during which time he was the two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (2002, 2004) and led the Golden Bears to a share of the 2006 Pac-10 Championship, the school's first since 1975. The winningest coach in Cal history, Tedford guided the team to a school-record seven consecutive bowl appearances from 2003-09 while making the Bears bowl eligible in nine of his 11 seasons, amassing a final record of 82-57 (.590).

When Tedford took over at Cal, the school had not had a winning program since 1993 and had won just 29 games over a nine-year span (1993-2001). Tedford left the school with the most victories (82), bowl wins (five) and conference wins (50) in school history.

Under Tedford's watch, Cal produced 40 NFL draft picks, with eight first-round selections. Notable players include running back Marshawn Lynch, center Alex Mack, quarterback Aaron Rodgers and wide receiver Desean Jackson. Tedford, a noted quarterback specialist, helped develop six quarterbacks who would be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his time at Cal, Tedford worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oregon (1998-2001), helping the Ducks finish the 2001 campaign with a No. 2 national ranking. During his four years in Eugene, Oregon went 38-10, the best record in the Pac-10. During his first season as offensive coordinator, Oregon set then-school records in passing yards, total offense and points scored.

Tedford's coaching career began with two seasons as a volunteer assistant at Fresno State (1987-88) before joining the Calgary Stampeders, where he worked as an offensive assistant (1989-91), including helping lead the 1991 squad to the Grey Cup.

Tedford returned to Fresno State in 1992, working as the quarterbacks coach, before adding offensive coordinator duties, a position he held from 1993-1997. While at Fresno State, Tedford helped tutor quarterback Trent Dilfer, who won the WAC Offensive Player of the Year award and was a first-round selection of the Buccaneers in 1994.

Tedford was a quarterback at Cerritos College, where he played for two seasons before transferring to Fresno State. While with the Bulldogs, Tedford set school records for passing yards (4,872) and passing touchdowns (35). Tedford spent six years as a quarterback in the CFL before beginning his coaching career.

Tedford and his wife Donna have two sons, Taylor and Quinn.

Prior to joining the Southern Mississippi coaching staff, Arroyo spent two years (2011-2012) under Buccaneers offensive coordinator Jeff Tedford at the University of California as the passing game coordinator. With Arroyo as the quarterbacks coach in 2011, Cal had a much improved offense, as he helped the Golden Bears' passing game jump from No. 94 in 2010 (175.08 ypg) to No. 46 in 2011 (246.62 ypg).

Byrd began his career with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach (2006), before becoming assistant defensive backs coach in 2007. He added safeties coach to his duties in 2008 and held the position until 2012. Byrd helped developed young safeties Chris Conte and Major Wright, who went from third-round draft selections to full-time starters under Byrd. In 2012, Wright started all 16 games and recorded career-highs in interceptions and passes defended. In 2011, Conte was named to the PFW and PFWA All-Rookie Team.

Prior to his time in Chicago, Byrd coached in St. Louis, where he began his coaching career in 2003. His first two seasons were spent as the Rams defensive assistant before being promoted to assistant secondary coach for the 2005 campaign.

Byrd compiled a stand-out 10-year NFL career playing exclusively with the San Diego Chargers and retired after the 1993 season as the team's all-time leader in interceptions (42) and interception return yards (546), two records which he still owns. Chosen by the Chargers with the 22nd overall pick of the first round in the 1983 NFL Draft, Byrd led all NFL cornerbacks in interceptions for three consecutive seasons (1989-91) and paced the Chargers in four straight years (1988-91). He and wife Marilyn have two sons: Gill II, who lettered three years as a defensive back and graduated with a degree in Hotel-Restaurant Tourism from New Mexico State, and Jairus, who lettered for three years at the University of Oregon and a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection with the Buffalo Bills whose 22 interceptions since joining the league in 2009 are the second-most in the NFL.

Joe Cullen begins his first season as defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2014.

A veteran of seven NFL seasons, Joe Cullen has 24 years of coaching experience, including 17 on the collegiate level. Cullen spent the 2013 season as the defensive line coach for the Cleveland Browns.

Cullen was a part of one of the best defensive turnarounds in Cleveland history. After finishing 23rd in the league in 2012, the Browns ranked ninth in the league in total defense in 2013, marking the team's best finish since 1994. Cullen oversaw a stout defensive line, which helped limit opponents to an average of 3.9 yards per carry, which ranked eighth in the NFL and marked Cleveland's best total in 18 years. The Browns' defense also registered 40 sacks, their most since 2001.

Before joining the Browns, Cullen spent three seasons (2010-12) as the defensive line coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he helped develop defensive tackle Tyson Alualu, the 10th overall pick in 2010. Under Cullen, Alualu started all 48 games and led the club in sacks in 2012. In 2011, defensive end Jeremy Mincey recorded career-best totals with 101 tackles and a team-leading eight sacks and four forced fumbles. In 2011, the Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL in yards allowed, improving from 28th the year before. The team also finished fifth in the league in yards per carry, improving from 28th the previous season.

Prior to the Jaguars, Cullen served as defensive line coach at Idaho State in 2009, after spending three seasons (2006-08) with the Detroit Lions as defensive line coach. In 2008, the Lions finished 10th in the NFL in sacks per pass attempt and finished in the top 10 in sacks in 2007 and 2008. He helped develop Cliff Avril who led all rookies in sacks (6) and forced fumbles (4) in 2008. Under Cullen, a number of players recorded career-best sack totals, including Shaun Rogers (7 in 2007), Jared DeVries (6.5 in 2007), Dewayne White (6.5 in 2007 and 2008) and Cory Redding (8 in 2006).

Before his stint at Idaho State, Cullen spent time at Illinois (2005), Indiana (2002-04), Memphis (2001) and Louisiana State (1999). During his final season at Indiana, he helped the Hoosiers defeat two ranked teams in the same season for the first time since 1989.

Cullen spent eight seasons (1992-98, 2000) at Richmond, including three as defensive coordinator. The Spiders led the Atlantic 10 in total defense in all three seasons Cullen served as defensive coordinator. In 2000, the unit ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense and 14th in scoring defense, despite playing the nation's toughest schedule. That season, he also helped the Spiders to a 10-3 record and an appearance in the NCAA I-AA quarterfinals. In 1998, the club finished 9-2 and won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA I-AA playoffs.

Cullen played nose guard at the University of Massachusetts from 1986-89, where he was a three-time all-conference honoree. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, first overseeing the running backs in 1990 and then the defensive line in 1991. Cullen earned his bachelor's degree in sports management. He and his wife, Andrea, were married in June, 2013.

In his career, Embree has spent 17 years at the University of Colorado as a player and coach, including two seasons (2011-12) as the Buffaloes head coach. Prior to his stint as Colorado's head coach, he spent 11 seasons (1991, 1993-2002) as an assistant coach following a standout collegiate career, where he was a four-year letterman (1983-86). As an assistant coach, he worked in a myriad of roles, including overseeing the tight ends (1993-94, 1999-2000), defensive ends (1995-98) and wide receivers/kickers (2001-02). He spent three seasons at UCLA, first as assistant head coach/wide receivers (2003) and then as assistant head coach/tight ends (2004-05). While with the Bruins, he helped shape tight end Mercedes Lewis who would win the 2005 John Mackey award, given to the nation's top tight end. That season, Lewis set school records for a tight end with 58 receptions and 10 touchdowns en route to being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Embree spent the next three seasons (2006-08) as the tight ends coach with the Kansas City Chiefs. Tony Gonzalez was selected to the Pro Bowl each season under Embree and led all NFL tight ends with 268 receptions and 3,130 receiving yards during that three-year span.

Embree spent one season (2010) coaching the tight ends with the Washington Redskins. That season, Chris Cooley finished second on the team with 77 receptions, while adding 849 yards with three touchdowns. Embree returned to Colorado as head coach following his stint in Washington.

Following his playing career with the Buffaloes, where he finished in the top five in school history in both career receptions (80) and yards (1,116), Embree was a sixth-round pick by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played two seasons with the Rams before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989, while with the Seattle Seahawks.

A native of Englewood, Colorado, Embree earned his degree in communications in 1987. He and his wife, Natalyn, have two sons, Taylor and Connor, and one daughter, Hannah. Jon's father, John, played two seasons (1969-70) as a wide receiver with the Denver Broncos.

TIM SPENCER

Spencer served as running backs coach for the Chicago Bears for nine seasons (2004-12), coaching under current Buccaneers Head Coach Lovie Smith during Smith's tenure in the NFC North. Spencer had great success tutoring Chicago's ball carriers, with individual players recording 1,000-yard rushing seasons on five different occasions (Thomas Jones – 2005-06; Matt Forté – 2008, 2010, 2012), and the team surpassing the 2,000-yard rushing mark twice (2005, 2011), marking the only two times such a feat has been accomplished in Bears history, and coming less than 100 yards shy of that mark in 2006.

Under Spencer's guidance, Forté blossomed, breaking franchise rookie records in 2008 in rushing yards (1,238), yards from scrimmage (1,715) and receptions (63) and becoming one of just one of eight rookies in NFL history to rush for 1,000-plus yards and record 50-plus receptions. In Forté's five seasons with Spencer, the running back became the first player for Chicago to record 1,000-plus yards from scrimmage in each of his first five NFL seasons, the first player in franchise history with 900 rushing yards in each of his first five seasons with the team and the first running back in franchise history with 400 receiving yards in four seasons. Forté was selected to the Pro Bowl following his 2011 campaign in which he ranked third in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (123.9) and sixth in rushing yards per game (83.1).

During Spencer's time with the Bears, Chicago running backs claimed six of the top seven single-season reception totals at the position in team history and compiled 15,472 yards on 3,939 carries.

Spencer began his coaching career at The Ohio State University, where he tutored running backs from 1994-2003. With the Buckeyes, Spencer coached Eddie George during George's Heisman Trophy-winning season in 1995 and during the team's national championship season in 2002. He was part of three Big Ten championship teams and his position group helped an OSU offense that led the Big Ten in scoring offense and total offense in three of his 10 seasons. Including George (twice), he produced 1,000-yard rushers on six occasions.

A Buckeye running back himself, Spencer played for OSU from 1979-1982, leading the team in rushing during his final two seasons and closing his career with 3,553 yards on the ground and serving as a senior co-captain and team MVP. Spencer was the second-overall pick in the 1983 USFL draft, where he played one year each for Chicago (1983), Arizona (1984), and Memphis (1985), before playing for the San Diego Chargers (1985-90), where he was a four-year starter at fullback.

Spencer and his wife, Gilda, have two sons, Cole and Evan.

This season, Quarles enters his first year as director of football operations, after spending two seasons as director of pro scouting, a title he earned after two years as coordinator of pro scouting and four years as a pro scout for Tampa Bay.

In his current role, Quarles will work directly with the head coach and general manager in organizing day-to-day operations of the team, while assisting with roster management and contract negotiations, advising the pro personnel department on advance scouting and overseeing all player travel and transportation.

While operating as director of pro scouting, Quarles was in charge of handling the team's pro personnel staff and evaluating players. Working as the coordinator of pro scouting, Quarles was responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts. During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only two players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Rondé Barber) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the “Fashion Funds the Cure” fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles’ retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Currently, Quarles serves on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (September 2009-present) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. This year, Quarles was named the Trailblazer of Our Children’s Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff’s Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations.

An avid golfer, in the spring of 2009, Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

MARTIN'S ROOKIE MARKS (12/30) – RB Doug Martin capped off a brilliant rookie season, recording the second-most scrimmage yards (1,926), rushing yards (1,454) touchdowns (12), and rushing touchdowns (11) in franchise history, all of which were rookie records.

JACKSON SELECTED TO THIRD PRO BOWL (1/15) – WR Vincent Jackson was selected to play for the NFC squad in the 2013 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It was the third time that Jackson was selected to the all-star game, and his first with the Buccaneers.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS CB REVIS (4/21) – The Bucs trade a first round pick (13th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft and a conditional draft pick in the 2014 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for three-time All-Pro CB Darrelle Revis. A four-time Pro Bowl selection and the 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year, Revis is widely considered one of the best cornerbacks in the NFL.

SAPP INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (8/4) – DT Warren Sapp joins DE Lee Roy Selmon as the only Buccaneers in the NFL Hall of Fame. Sapp is inducted by his daughter, Mercedes.

LICHT NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (1/21) – The Buccaneers hire Jason Licht as the fifth general manager in franchise history. In his career, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed nine playoff appearances, eight division championships, four conference championships and one Super Bowl title.

BUCCANEERS AND NIKE UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORM DESIGN (3/3) – A part of a unique and innovative social media rollout, the Buccaneers debut their new NFL Nike Elite 51 Uniform designs, incorporating many of the unique historical aspects of the Tampa Bay area and featuring a refreshed color scheme honoring the franchise's past and present, while confidently positioning the team for the future.

BUCCANEERS MAKE MOVES IN FREE AGENCY (3/13) – New Buccaneers head coach Lovie Smith and general manager Jason Licht make a splash in free agency, quickly signing seven players—tackle Anthony Collins, center Evan Dietrich-Smith, defensive end Michael Johnson, quarterback Josh McCown, defensive tackle Clinton McDonald, tight end Brandon Myers and cornerback Alterraun Verner—setting the pace for the rest of the NFL. The Bucs' moves were lauded by experts, as the team was given high marks by almost every media outlet, including CBS Sports, ESPN, NFL.com, Sports Illustrated and USA Today.

FIRST-EVER 'ALL-OFFENSE' DRAFT BY THE BUCCANEERS (5/10) – Beginning with their selection of wide receiver Mike Evans with the seventh overall pick, the Buccaneers had their first-ever draft of exclusively offensive players. Tampa Bay used all six of its picks in the 2014 NFL Draft to select players on the offensive side of the ball: wide receiver Mike Evans (first round, seventh overall), tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins (second round, 38th overall), running back Charles Sims (third round, 69th overall), guard Kadeem Edwards (fifth round, 143rd overall), tackle Kevin Pamphile (fifth round, 149th overall) and wide receiver Robert Herron (sixth round, 185th overall).

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
DECEMBER 29, 1979
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incomplection from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA — In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate LA territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charlie Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

SIDELINES

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17
TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS — For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10 DECEMBER 28, 1997 HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA — In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7

JANUARY 4, 1998

LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY — The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3 DECEMBER 31, 2000 VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9
VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA — Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

2002 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

TAMPA BAY 48, OAKLAND 21
QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO — Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10 JANUARY 7, 2006 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA — Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

In the long-established tradition of creating custom awards for the world of sports, Tiffany & Co. designed the Super Bowl championship rings presented to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, winners of Super Bowl XXXVII.

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

SIDELINES

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

MCKAY

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon, the first and currently only Buccaneer ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice — and the team's first-ever draft selection — in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon took on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JIMMIE GILES

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to rank highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon as the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defended, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defended, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

The Buccaneers are proud to honor Sapp as their 2013 Ring of Honor inductee.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joins the illustrious group of Buccaneers Ring of Honor members in 2014, as the sixth inductee to receive the highest recognition that the team can bestow upon an individual.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to form the engine that turned the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defended, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was - and continues to be - a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School; a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defended, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

An unquestioned leader of the Buccaneers and now the third Tampa Bay inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the Buccaneers are proud to add Derrick Brooks to the Ring of Honor in 2014.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as "The Crown Jewel of the NFL" by league insiders upon its opening, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Buccaneers Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2014 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the majestic, 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s Pirate Ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew on game day who is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

The Buccaneers make their home at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136,320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to the meticulously kept practice fields.

One Buc, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at One Buccaneer Place covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

Across the hall from the locker room is the players' lounge, which looks out onto the practice fields. The room is decorated with comfortable leather couches and chairs and features a large entertainment center, two custom Buccaneers pool tables, video arcade machines and more.

The lounge provides extra space for players during downtime, whether it's to grab a snack, play pool or video games with teammates, or even grab a quick nap.

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at One Buc is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where Head Coach Lovie Smith addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-by-position, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions, Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

One Buccaneer Place consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is One Buc's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defended, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defended against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM' NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for some public figure or local sports legend, but rather a thriving diversified financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg — Raymond James Financial.

The company has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and will continue as the named sponsor through at least 2015. Raymond James is the official investment services and financial planning provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The firm's name actually comes from the 1962 merger of two financial service companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments — and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a full understanding of each client's situation and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James is a multinational company with distinct business units that serve a variety of clients, from individuals and small business owners to municipalities and major corporations.

RAYMOND JAMES & THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS TEAM UP TO HELP OTHERS

Back in 1962, Bob James founded Raymond James on the principle that putting others first — from our clients to our neighbors — was the right thing to do. His deep commitment to doing what's right remains a core part of the company today. His legacy is continued through the investment of time, money and talents into the communities we serve. It's so much more than tradition; it's a way of thanking those who've supported the firm from the start.

During the football season, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up for two charitable programs: Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 14th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes funds to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $250,000 for children's hospitals in cities across the country where the Buccaneers have played.

SACK HUNGER

Since the 2000 season, Raymond James and the Glazer Family Foundation have worked to "sack hunger" by stocking Tampa Bay-area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday. This effort has collected more than 117.5 tons of nonperishable food items along with funding to provide approximately 242,693 meals for families through special drives and game-day collections at the stadium.

This year's annual Sack Hunger game-day food drive will be held in November. Visit sackhunger.com to learn more.

RAYMOND JAMES SUPPORT OF THE ARTS

A deep appreciation for the arts permeates the culture at Raymond James and is reflected at the firm's corporate headquarters, where more than 2,000 works of art are on display as part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com/art. Tours of the art displayed at the Raymond James international headquarters can also be arranged.

In addition to sponsoring several art shows in the community each year, Raymond James is also a continuing sponsor of local theater and other performing arts venues in the Tampa Bay area. The company hopes its actions will help encourage others – corporations and individuals – to support not only live theater, but all forms of artistic expression.

WFLA

As the Buccaneers take the field this year, WFLA, News Channel 8, will join as the team's official home for preseason football, signing an agreement to broadcast preseason games through 2017. In 2014, WFLA is producing and broadcasting all four games: on the road at Jacksonville and Buffalo in Weeks 1 and at home versus Miami and Washington in Weeks 2 and 4, respectively. News Channel 8 will also produce and air pregame special prior to each preseason game and anchor Dan Lucas will host "Bucs Bonus," a half-hour program that will air Saturday nights at 7 p.m. during the NFL season.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his 11th season in the broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and recently hosted the Chris Myers Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers, who was born in Florida, began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Joining Myers as color analyst is Buccaneers legend Rondé Barber, who will provide Bucs fans with astute analysis gleaned from a storied 16-year NFL career with Tampa Bay. One of the most respected players in team history, Barber retired following the 2012 season and signed with FOX Sports soon after. 2014 marks Barber's second year in the broadcast booth. After the preseason, Barber will continue working with Myers as the pair call regular season games for The NFL on FOX.

Barber, a five-time Pro Bowler and five-time AP All-Pro selection, entered the league as a third-round (66th overall) pick by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft. He holds numerous team and league records, including a streak of 200 consecutive starts at cornerback, the most for that position in NFL history. Barber was a key component of the Tampa Bay defense that ruled the league in the late 1990s and early 2000s, helping bring the world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Dan Lucas, who serves as a sports anchor and reporter for WFLA, will serve as the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. He is a Tampa native who graduated from Leto High School and went on to graduate from Florida State University. Prior to his work with WFLA, Lucas worked as weekend sports anchor at WJAC-TV in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, where he covered Penn State and all the Pittsburgh professional sports franchises.

CHEERLEADERS

Since 1976, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have charmed the team's avid fans, performed to worldwide acclaim, and cheered the team to a Super Bowl Championship.

The 28 to 34 women that comprise the squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year to represent the team and include athletes, educators, professionals, students and mothers. These talented women are committed both to the team and the community, making a large number of appearances for both corporate and non-profit events throughout their term.

In addition to their work within the Tampa Bay Area, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders also serve as ambassadors for the organization throughout the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Canada, Egypt, Japan, Europe, Australia, California, Texas and Hawaii.

TARA BATTIATO

CHEERLEADING MANAGER

Tara Battiato enters her first season directing the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders as the team's Cheerleading Manager. Battiato most recently spent five seasons cheering with the Denver Broncos, serving as a team captain for four years and traveling to Hawaii as the team's 2013 Pro Bowl Representative.

Battiato also has professional dance experience working with the Houston Rockets, Boise State Main Line Dance Team, and Austin Ballet Company.

MEDIA POLICIES AND GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department at (813) 554-1311. Phone interviews should be arranged in advance and are subject to availability. Head Coach Lovie Smith will address the media directly after practices and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with the opposing team media. Smith will also have a regularly scheduled day-after-game press conference. Please contact Buccaneers PR for details.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers will observe a weekly players' day off every Monday of regular game weeks. Open locker room periods for accredited media will be offered each Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Times for the open locker room sessions are available by contacting the PR department.

Practice Regulations: Times for the team's weekly practices are available by calling the Buccaneers' PR department. All practices are closed to the public. Regularly credentialed media, still photographers and videographers may attend approximately the first 30 minutes of practice. Reporters who are not regular members of the Buccaneers' media corps should contact the PR department to arrange practice attendance.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' PR department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a freelance basis unless the request is made by an approved publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted via the Buccaneers' media site at <http://media.buccaneers.com>. Contact Kelly Schutz with any questions regarding credentials.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release, including updated statistics, player bios, etc., may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the media site. The team's weekly injury report and daily transcriptions can be found in the same locations.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. The media will call is staffed beginning four hours prior to kickoff. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Sandra Jones of CenturyLink (800-471-1139) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline.

NOTE: Unless previously arranged, no interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.

In 2010, the Foundation helped create a new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders: the Glazer Children's Museum.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened on September 25, 2010 along the waterfront in downtown Tampa. The 53,000 square-foot building is not a typical museum, but a place with activities, games and challenges that allows children to learn in an exciting, stimulating environment. The world-class facility has already hosted hundreds of thousands of visitors and been honored both locally and nationally for educational excellence and economic impact. In 2012, the Tampa Bay Business Journal named the Glazer Children's Museum as its Arts, Culture and Humanities "Nonprofit of the Year."

A combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs and special events provide children, parents, caregivers and teachers with a rich and ever-changing atmosphere for playful learning. Kids can enjoy more than 170 unique, interactive exhibits called 'Interactivities' throughout 12 differently-themed areas committed to education and imagination. Children can pretend to be airplane pilots, cruise ship captains, construction workers, fire fighters, doctors and more in a safe, engaging environment.

Having established impactful partnerships with schools, nonprofit organizations and civic leaders, the Glazer Children's Museum serves as an invaluable resource to the community. A main attraction in downtown Tampa and a destination for local residents, regional visitors and tourists, the Museum is in a class all its own. For hours of operation, directions and more information, visit www.GlazerMuseum.org.
